Ideas for Atlantic City's Beach & Boardwalk

How can the City:

- ✓ maximize the use of these assets for recreation and entertainment
- ✓ encourage development consistent with surrounding uses (Arkansas is different than Jackson)
- ✓ increase revenue to cover costs

The public is invited to attend monthly Noon Time Talks, which are intended as a dialogue between City of Atlantic City Planning Department staff and the community to share a common vision about the City's development.

The talks will include a presentation and question-and-answer session.

The talks will take place on the third Wednesday of each month at Atlantic City Council Chambers.
